Apprendre LTD Prices 2009

Thank you for your interest in Apprendre. Please find our price list below. We aim to making your booking as smooth and simple as possible, so please feel free to contact us if you have any questions.

At the start of your course your ability level will be determined to ensure you get maximum benefit from your time in France. You are also continually monitored and assessed, to ensure that you are in the right group for you.

There are six levels in accordance with those defined by the Council of Europe:

- A1: Breakthrough
- A2: Waystage
- B1: Threshold
- B2: Vantage
- C1: Effective Operational Proficiency
- C2: Mastery

Thus beginner (A1) through to expert (C2).

Apprendre LTD Terms and Conditions 2009

Enrolment and Registration

Registration forms have to be completed and the deposit paid before official enrolment and registration takes place. After the said documents have been received you will acknowledgment and confirmation from Apprendre LTD that your course is booked. In the unlikely event of us being unable to make the booking at the time you requested, we will return your deposit and full, and suggest alternatives.

Absence and Behaviour

Repeated absences, disturbances or general bad behaviour may lead to the issuing of warnings or expulsion from the programme. Apprendre LTD does not accept responsibility for any damage, deliberate or accidental, caused by the student. In the event of damage, the student becomes liable to compensate for any costs or losses that are incurred. In the event of expulsion, it is not possible to refund any sums paid. Apprendre LTD reserve the right to exclude at anytime. Decisions of the Company Directors are final.

National Holidays

Language courses are not normally held or refunded on National Holidays, students should be aware of when they are to see whether they will be affected by them. Whilst we endeavour to ensure the maximum number of sessions are run, Apprendre LTD cannot accept responsibility for lessons cancelled due to strikes or other force majeure scenarios.

Insurance

It is the responsibility of the student to ensure that they are adequately insured. We also recommend that students consider insurance for any sporting pursuit that they may follow whilst in France. In most cases, it is likely that insurance will be a compulsory requirement, which may sometimes be requested on registration or arrival. It may be advisable to obtain cancellation insurance, should some unforeseen event prevent you from attending the programme.
